SOUTHERN DIVISION

DENNIS PASSLEY

PLAINTIFF

VERSUS

CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:10-cv-583-LG-RHW

JACKSON COUNTY ADULT DETENTION CENTER, et al.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Plaintiff, an inmate of the Jackson County Adult Detention Center, filed this pro se complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Plaintiff is advised that the Jackson County Adult Detention Center is not a separate legal entity that may be named as a party in a § 1983 lawsuit. However, a county may be held liable in a § 1983 suit, in limited circumstances. Since the Plaintiff is incarcerated and proceeding pro se, he will be provided an opportunity to amend his complaint to clarify if he is naming Jackson County as a defendant. Upon initial review of the complaint, it is hereby,

ORDERED:

1. That on or before February 4, 2011, Plaintiff shall file a written response to:
 - (a) specifically state if the Plaintiff is naming Jackson County as a defendant, if so, specifically state how Jackson County violated his constitutional rights;
 - (b) specifically state how defendant Broadus violated his constitutional rights;
 - (c) specifically state how defendant Jackson violated his constitutional rights;
 - (d) specifically state how defendant Davis violated his constitutional rights; and
 - (e) specifically state how defendant Barratt violated his constitutional rights.

2. That failure to advise this Court of a change of address or failure to timely comply with any order of this Court will be deemed as a purposeful delay and contumacious act by the Plaintiff and may result in this cause being dismissed without further notice to the Plaintiff.

3. That the Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to the Plaintiff at his last known address.

THIS the 14th day of January, 2011.
